Frequently Asked Questions

Who can apply?

Any Millard student who will be entering 9th grade.

I have already completed 9th grade, may I participate?

Millard students entering 10th, 11th, or 12th grade may be accepted on a space available basis. If accepted, these students may need to take courses at Metropolitan Community College independently to complete the Associate of Arts Degree requirements.

How do I apply?

Complete the application available on the Early College webpage or from your school counselor.

Where is the Early College Program located?

The Early College Program is located at Millard South High School. Students who are accepted will need to transfer to Millard South.

Is there a cost to participate?

Students will pay one half of the reduced rate tuition. The Millard Public Schools Foundation will pay the remaining half of the reduced rate tuition at Metropolitan Community College. See the Early College webpage for current tuition rates.

What courses will I be required to complete?

Please refer to the High School Curriculum Handbook and Registration Guide or the Millard Early College webpage.

If I transfer from another Millard high school to Millard South, will transportation be provided?

Transportation will not be provided for students who transfer to Millard South to participate in the Early College Program. "Transportation for students who transfer within the District must be provided by the student's parents or legal guardian unless as otherwise required by law." Policy 5110.1

Will I be required to complete any additional courses?

Students who enter the Early College Program in 9th grade and continue through graduation will not be required to take additional courses to fulfill Millard Graduation requirements or Associate of Arts Degree requirements if they follow the recommended four-year plan.

What are my options if I discover the Early College Program is not for me?

Application to the Early College Program should be considered a commitment through graduation. However, if your goals change, see your high school counselor.

If I participate in the Early College Program, will I still be able to take Advanced Placement courses?

Yes, Early College participants may still elect to take Advanced Placement courses.

How does successful completion of an Associate of Arts Degree impact entrance into a Bachelor Degree granting college?

Students transferring from Metropolitan Community College with an Associate of Arts Degree completed after 2010 will have fulfilled the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) general education requirements. See the UNO transfer website for additional information: www.unomaha.edu/admissions/undergraduate/transfer.php#c.

Will the Associate of Arts Degree transfer to other colleges or universities?

Each college and university has unique transfer policies. Students should check with the institution(s) they may want to attend.
