

Nebraska Career Education: Perkins Grant

Career & Technical Education courses in Business and Information Technology, Family & Consumer Science, and Industrial Technology meet Nebraska Department of Education program standards to qualify for Carl Perkins Career & Technical Education Grant funds. Five year plans are created with the support of the Career & Technical Education Advisory Council to use grant funds to provide improved equipment, instructional support and staff training in emerging technologies are created.